

Join Pacifica resident and two-day Jeopardy champion Pidge Meade as she recounts her experience on America's favorite game show. She will also reveal how the strategies she used to succeed on TV are useful in our everyday lives, too.

Brought to you by the American Association of University Women. Pidge Meade is a technical writer, actress, playwright, and musician. During weekdays you'll find her working at Visa in Foster City. The rest of the time she's singing, acting, doing creative writing, hiking the beautiful hills of Pacifica, or having fun adventures with her husband and fellow Jeopardy champion Dave Sikula.
