HERE COMES RAINY SEASON

As rainy season approaches, it brings with it slick roadway conditions and reduced visibility. As the first rains begin shortly, oil that has accumulated on the roadway will make the surface unusually slippery. Motorists should drive accordingly, reducing their speed, increase their distance from vehicles in front of them, and be aware of reduced visibility at times. Always wear your seat belt, make sure children are properly secured in car seats and booster seats, and as always refrain from using electronic handheld devices while operating your vehicle. PCE ELECTRIC-CAR DISCOUNTS

San Mateo County residents can now save thousands of dollars on electric vehicles due to a Peninsula Clean Energy (PCE) partnership with local auto dealerships. PCE has arranged for participating dealers to offer attractive savings to San Mateo County residents wishing to buy or lease select electric car models before December 31, 2018. The program can save customers $4,000 or more on a new electric vehicle (EV). Participating dealerships are Stewart Chevrolet of Colma offering the Chevrolet Volt and Bolt, and Putnam Nissan of Burlingame offering the Nissan Leaf. Customers interested in getting $4,000 or more in participating dealer discounts can go to PeninsulaCleanEnergy.com/EV for more information. Eligible state and federal tax benefits further decrease EV prices for qualified customers.

CONEY DOG PIZZA

Everything about Detroit-style pizza is bigger. The most obvious distinction is the crust, thicker and crispier than any to be found in New York or Chicago. Then there's the colossal kitchenware: Detroit-style pizzas are often baked in industrial trays first used to hold parts in factories. They are truly a Motor City munchie. Naturally, these pizzas had to be even further enhanced. So Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers, stepped in and began selling

Detroit-style “Coney” pizzas in 2017 to mixed reactions. The Coney retains all the normal jumbo-ness of the Detroit pizza and expands on it, stacking hot dog slices, raw onions, and bursts of yellow mustard (truly the wow factor) atop what was basically already the uberpizza. The hot dogs not only add heft, but another dose of Detroit pride: chili-topped “Coney dogs” are a local specialty introduced by Greek immigrants to Detroit. (Source: Atlas Obscura)
