PRESS RELEASE

June 23, 2023

Area Searched for Reported Man Seen in the Water

Pacifica, CA- On June 23, 2023 at approximately 8:15 p.m. officers responded to the area of Rockaway Beach on a report of a person seen walking into the ocean but not seen since. Witnesses at a restaurant nearby reported seeing a person walk into the ocean but did not see them come out. Pacifica Police Officers and personnel from the North County Fire Authority, AMR Paramedics and the U.S. Coast Guard responded and conducted an extensive search of the area. No one was located. Officers contacted a number of beachgoers however were unable to locate any other witnesses on the beach to this incident. Some sea lions were seen in the area and may have appeared to be a person in distress in the water.

The person was described as a white male adult, approximately 30 years of age, wearing a baseball hat, a dark colored short sleeve t-shirt and dark colored shorts.

Anyone with information regarding this incident are asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314, or the Silent Witness Tip Line at 650-359-4444. Refer to case 23-1929.
