HMB man arrested for alleged sex acts with minor

San Mateo County Sheriff's deputies last week arrested a Half Moon Bay man accused of sexual misconduct with multiple minors. On April 26, deputies arrested Cesar Gomez Perez, 25, who was identified as a suspect in a September 2021 rape case, according to a statement from the Sheriff's Office. During the investigation, deputies identified another minor who claimed to have engaged in sexual acts with Gomez Perez. He was arrested and booked into Maguire Correctional Facility on multiple charges, including rape of a minor over 14 and sex acts with a minor.
