

Friends:

2021 marks TRT's 40th year, and we invite you to join us online to honor the occasion this Thursday, November 4 from noon-1pm. You can register at:

If you missed last week's workshop on the SFPUC's Long-Term (Climate Change) Vulnerability Assessment, the recording is now posted at:

The Chronicle had a good article about the demise of the Tuolumne River Voluntary Agreement. The article is posted at:

<https://www.sfchronicle.com/sf/article/California-drought-Key-talks-over-water-use-16576132.php>

I've also attached a pdf of the article in case you can't access it online.

It would be great to "see" you on Thursday.
