

NEWS

Nov. 20, 2024

For Immediate Release

Media Advisory

County Supervisor to Provide Key Updates to Independent Investigation of Sheriff's Office

Redwood City – Media are invited to attend a news conference Thursday afternoon (tomorrow) to hear key updates related to the independent investigation into allegations filed against the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office.

WHAT: Sharing of several significant updates to the independent investigation and report

WHEN: Thursday, Nov. 21 at 1 p.m.

WHERE: Board Chambers, First Floor, 500 County Center, Redwood City

SPEAKER: Supervisor Ray Mueller, District Three

ZOOM: <https://smcgov.zoom.us/j/87388972583>

BACKGROUND: The Board of Supervisors retained retired Judge LaDoris H. Cordell to conduct a fact-finding investigation into complaints and concerns about the Sheriff's Office. Cordell is a distinguished former judicial officer who has overseen several high-profile evaluations of law enforcement in the Bay Area. Cordell's painstaking investigation and subsequent report includes witness reports, direct evidence, findings and recommendations.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:

- Parking is available in the public garage on the County Center campus.
- Please enter the County courtyard side of the building.

- RSVPS not required but can be made to Chief Communications Officer Michelle Durand, mdurand@smcgov.org or 650-670-6114 (M)
- The event will be available live via Zoom and footage posted online after.
- The full report and associated materials, including prior press releases and videos, is available at <https://www.smcgov.org/ceo/independent-investigation-sheriffs-office>

