New Gallery Representation

I'm excited to let you know that my paintings have been accepted for showing on two well regarded international online art galleries, Singularart which is headquartered in Paris and Artfinder which is headquartered in London. Artfinder is a B corporation which is cool!

Singularart is currently featuring my painting titled "Rain in the Beginning" on its page "Selection of Impressionism." The same painting is also part of my shop that's located here. On Artfinder my shop is here.

Happy Holidays,
Hal
