

On Monday, August 8 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Pacific time, I'll present a free Zoom program celebrating August's designation as International Peace Month. The event will feature and discuss peace-related songs spanning several styles and generations. Besides peace anthems by legends like John Lennon, Pete Seeger, and Buffy St. Marie, I'll also include lesser-known work by artists in rock, folk, reggae, and other styles. To view the program, go to <https://sfcommunityliving.org/event/boomer-talk-with-richie-unterberger-celebrating-international-peace-month/> at the time listed.
