

Pacifica is known for its stunning beaches, trails, and mountain parks. As residents of Linda Mar, we understand the importance of balancing recreational access, development, and stewardship of the environment to maintain quality of life. In an effort to better understand our community and the priorities and concerns we all share, we invite you to participate in the Linda Mar Woods community survey. Go to www.lindamarwoods.com to start the survey. Thank you for your participation.