Missing Person with Dementia Located

Pacifica, CA- On May 13, 2019 the Pacifica Police Department received a report of a missing person with dementia. CARMELA SMITH was last seen at her home in Pacifica around 4:30PM that day.

On May 14, 2019 around 7:45 PM we learned Mrs. SMITH was found safe in San Francisco. A crew from San Francisco Fire Department Station 5 saw Mrs. Smith at a bus stop and recognized her from media reports on this investigation. She was transported to an area hospital for treatment and reunited with her family.

Thank you for your help in locating Mrs. Smith.

Pacifica residents who have been diagnosed with dementia or similar conditions can enroll in our Special Needs Registry. For additional information on this program send an email to specialneedsregistry@pacificapolice.org or visit our website at
