In October of 2022 the Pacifica Police Department received a report of a sexual assault against a teenage girl. Pacifica Police Department investigators, including a detective specializing in investigation of sexual assault and crimes against children, began an in depth and lengthy investigation.

On March 23, 2023 Pacifica Police Detectives conducted surveillance of the suspect, and with the assistance of the Fremont Police Department and Alameda County Sherriff's Office, were able to take the suspect into custody.
