Seven Teenagers Arrested for Conspiracy in Attempted Burglary

Pacifica, CA- On May 25, 2023 at approximately 3:00 PM Pacifica Police Officers responded to a school on the 900 block of Oddstad Boulevard on the report of security alarm system activation. Upon arrival, officers observed a group of seven teenage male subjects that appeared to be attempting to force entry into an abandoned classroom. As officers attempted to contact the group, six of the subjects fled and ignored repeated commands to stop. One of the suspects complied and was apprehended without further incident. After additional officers were able to respond and establish a perimeter in the wooded area behind campus, the six outstanding suspects surrendered. The suspects ranged in age from 16 to 17 years old, and were determined to be residents from Pacifica and San Francisco.

During this investigation, officers determined the suspects attempted to force entry into the school using tools they had brought to the campus. These suspects were arrested for charges including 466 PC (Possession of burglary tools), 148 PC (Resisting/ delaying an officer), and 182 PC (Conspiracy to commit burglary). The suspects were later released to their parents or guardians.

This investigation is ongoing and anyone with information is encouraged to contact the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314. Please refer to Pacifica Police Department case number 23-1378.
