PRESS RELEASE

August 13, 2023

Parking Dispute Results in Arrest for Assault with a Firearm

Pacifica, Ca- On August 13, 2023 at approximately 2:41 PM, Pacifica Police Officers were dispatched to the Linda Mar Beach parking lot located at 495 Linda Mar Boulevard on the report of a parking dispute involving a firearm. The investigating officer arrived on scene, contacted the reporting parties and obtained identifying information for the subject and the vehicle involved. Officers conducted an extensive search of the area, locating the suspect vehicle parked on the 100 block of Rockaway Beach Avenue. Through a coordinated effort the suspect, identified as 36-year old Christina Villalobos of Pittsburg, CA, was detained without incident.

During the investigation officers determined Villalobos had allegedly threatened three individuals with an apparently loaded handgun during a dispute over parking. A child was also in the vehicle at the time. Officers established probable cause to arrest Villalobos for the following violations:

245(A)(2) PC- Assault with Firearm on Person- Felony
273A(A) PC – Child Endangerment- Felony
417(A)(1) PC- Exhibit Deadly Weapon- Misdemeanor

Villalobos was later booked into the San Mateo County jail for the aforementioned violations.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314, or the Silent Witness Tip Line at 650-359-4444. Refer to case 23-2153.
