Hit and Run Collision Investigation Results in Arrest of Suspected Drunk Driver

Pacifica, CA- On August 20, 2023 at approximately 5:22 PM, personnel from the Pacifica Police Department responded to the parking lot located at 5200 Cabrillo Highway for a reported hit and run collision. Upon arrival, officers located a white 2021 Tesla which had been damaged in a hit and run collision involving a white Ford F150 rental truck which had fled the scene. No injuries were reported.

Officers subsequently observed a white Ford F150 drive through a posted stop sign at the intersection of Crespi Drive and Seville Drive and performed a traffic stop. Officers observed the driver of the Ford F150 display symptoms of intoxication and a DUI investigation was initiated.

Through this investigation, officers determined the driver of the Ford F150, 20-year-old Mickey Cash of New Jersey, was involved in the hit and run collision at 5200 Cabrillo Highway. Officers also determined Mr. Cash had been driving while under the influence of alcohol at the time of this collision. Mr. Cash was subsequently placed under arrest for 20002(a)(1) CVC hit and run, 23152(a) CVC - DUI, 23136 (a) CVC DUI under 21 years of age and released to First Chance staff via signed criminal citation.

Anyone with information regarding this collision is asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314, or the Silent Witness Tip Line at 650-359-4444. Refer to case 23-2232. Help keep our roads safe. Report suspected impaired drivers by calling 9-1-1.
