Death Investigation

Pacifica, CA- On Wednesday November 15, 2023 at 8:00 AM Pacifica Police Officers and personnel from the North County Fire Authority were dispatched to the area of 100 Esplanade Avenue on a report of a body seen in the ocean. Officers arrived on scene and met with the reporting party. Officers later located and observed a motionless body floating in the water off shore just south of Mussel Rock.

Members of the Pillar Point Harbor patrol and California State Parks responded and were able to assist in the recovery.

The subject was later identified as 61-year-old Robert Aronovsky of Pacifica.

This is an ongoing investigation by the Pacifica Police Department and the San Mateo County Coroners Office. Anyone with information regarding this person or incident are asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314, and ask to speak with a detective. Refer to case 23-3049.
