Weapon Arrest

Pacifica, Ca- On February 2, 2024, at approximately 9:00 a.m., Pacifica Police Officers were dispatched to the 1000 block of Palmetto Avenue on the report of a fight in progress with one of the involved parties threatening to 'shoot someone.'

Officers arrived on scene to find the alleged suspect being restrained on the ground by two other persons. The suspect was then quickly secured by Officers without further incident.

Through this investigation, Officers determined that the suspect, 39-year-old Diogo Chaboudetkauf of Daly City, CA, had come to this area with the intent of confronting another individual about an ongoing personal feud. During the altercation, Chaboudetkauf threatened to shoot the victim and attempted to retrieve an unknown item, suspected to be a weapon, from his vehicle. Witnesses observed Chaboudetkauf access the trunk of his vehicle and attempt to remove a large, 27-inch fixed blade weapon. The witnesses immediately restrained Chaboudetkauf while a third person took possession of the weapon and called 9-1-1.

Upon completion of the investigation, Chaboudetkauf was placed under arrest and booked in to the San Mateo County Jail for violation of 422(a) PC – Criminal Threats, 417(a)(1) – Exhibit Deadly Weapon, and 591 PC – Destruction of Communication Device.

Witnesses are being sought to provide additional information about this incident. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314, or the Silent Witness Tip Line at 650-359-4444.
