Officer Involved Shooting

Pacifica, Ca- On March 27, 2024 at 7:51am, Pacifica Police Officers responded to an apartment complex in the 2500 block of Francisco Blvd for a report of a shooting that just occurred. The adult male victim called 911 to report that his mother shot him inside their residence.

Upon arrival, officers saw the mother driving away from the scene. When officers came in contact with the woman, she pointed a firearm at the officers, and an officer-involved shooting occurred.

The woman passed away at the scene. The victim sustained a gunshot wound and is in stable condition at the hospital.

The San Mateo County District Attorney's Office responded to the incident and will be conducting an independent investigation in accordance with our officer involved critical incident protocol.

Anyone with information regarding this incident are asked to call the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314.
