

August 2, 2022

TO: Interested Parties

FROM: Bryan Godbe
President, Godbe Research

RE: Summary of San Mateo County 3rd Supervisorial District Survey Results – General Election 2022

The Laura Parmer-Lohan for San Mateo County Supervisor 2022 commissioned Godbe Research to conduct a telephone survey of 340 likely voters in the San Mateo County 3rd Supervisorial District General Election.

Key Finding – Parmer-Lohan leads after information by nearly 2 to 1

Parmer-Lohan’s lead over her competitor after information about both candidates was nearly 2 to 1. Specifically, 40.8 percent of respondents indicated they would vote for Parmer-Lohan, but just 22.9 percent for her opponent.

	Total
	Column N %	Count
Laura Parmer-Lohan, City Councilmember / Business Owner	40.8%	139
Ray Mueller, Councilmember / Businessperson / Father	22.9%	78
Won't vote for San Mateo County Supervisor	2.9%	10
DK/NA	33.5%	114

Key Finding – Voters are Extremely Concerned about Protecting the right to an Abortion

Among Likely November 2022 General election voters, 58.6 percent indicated that they were extremely concerned about protecting the right to an abortion. Another 24.2 percent were very or somewhat concerned.

		Total
		Column N %	Count
Protecting the right to an abortion	Extremely concerned	58.6%	199
	Very concerned	12.9%	44
	Somewhat concerned	11.3%	38
	Not at all concerned	15.7%	53
	DK/NA	1.6%	6

Key Finding – Voters are Extremely Concerned about the Impacts of Climate Change

Among likely November 2022 General election voters, 36.7 percent indicated that they were extremely concerned about “Protecting residents against the impacts of climate change”. Another 49.8 percent indicated they were very or somewhat concerned.

		Total
		Column N %	Count
Protecting residents against the impacts of climate change	Extremely concerned	36.7%	61
	Very concerned	30.2%	51
	Somewhat concerned	19.6%	33
	Not at all concerned	12.7%	21
	DK/NA	0.8%	1

Conclusion – Based on her support from Planned Parenthood Advocates Mar Monte and her focus on addressing the impacts of climate change, Laura Parmer-Lohan is well positioned to win the General election in the San Mateo County 3rd Supervisorial District.