

We will be sending you our newsletter in a week or so, but there are a few things we want to share right now:

A new exhibit upstairs at the museum features the Pacifica Tribune.

- Bill Drake's (owner and publisher 1959-1989) original desk is part of the exhibit.
- On the desk, we have a computer so visitors can access in digital/searchable format (at no charge) the Tribune from 1957-2013. Save the articles you find: bring your own USB flash drive or purchase one at our Museum Gift Store.
- Now on YouTube: The PHS Event from Sunday March 27th The Pacifica Tribune: A Local Newspaper Recording Local History for the single video: <https://youtu.be/1Qz38MZErio> all six 2022 videos: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCjCXcTjiclJawjfG39wLUiA/videos>

- Available only until April 23rd: FREE Vintage newsprint copies of The Pacifica Tribune (1960-2010). Take all you want. Donations appreciated.

SAVE THE DATE: Sunday, May 1 12:30-2:30 PM

Mother's Day Tea at the Museum (invitation and reservation attached).

The tea party is a week before the official celebration, with traditional sandwiches, salads, scones and tea from Lovey's Tea Shoppe in Rockaway Beach. Tickets are $30 per person. While enjoying the tea, a PHS historian will give a short presentation about the history of honoring mothers in various cultures, from ancient times to the present.

Send a check ($30 per participant) to the PHS, P.O. Box 752, Pacifica, CA 94044, or drop it off at the museum at 1850 Francisco Blvd., during opening hours Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Indicate whether vegetarian option is preferred. Capacity is limited.

SAVE ANOTHER DATE: Sunday, May 22 2PM at the Museum

A flute concert by Bel Canto, a local group of musicians under the direction of Gail Edwards. The performance, the group's first "in person" event in more than two years, is free, reservations are not required. Donations to the PHS are encouraged.
